Introducing Pickleball with Maxwill Sports

Humble Beginings

Welcome to Maxwill Sports, where our passion for racquet sports transcends borders and brings together the finest athletes and sporting experiences.

Founded by two luminaries in the world of table tennis, Tian Zichao, a revered Chinese Olympic table tennis trainer, and Li Qian, an international table tennis champion from Poland, Maxwill Sports was born out of a shared commitment to excellence in sports and athlete development.

Their combined expertise and visionary perspective have been fundamental in shaping our company, which has rapidly evolved to meet the needs and aspirations of modern athletes.

Success in England

In early 2022, Maxwill Sports embarked on a new adventure by expanding our horizons into the world of pickleball. With a dedication to product development and design, we have focused intently on gathering player feedback to create gear that not only enhances performance but also reflects the vibrant community surrounding the sport.

Our commitment to quality has since garnered recognition on both national and international stages, culminating in a notable joint 5th place finish alongside Gamma at the esteemed 2024 Telford UK Battles of the Paddles, surpassing renowned brands like Head and Franklin.

Maxwill Momentum

As the sport of pickleball continues to gain momentum, we are proud to support and attend a variety of international championships, dedicating ourselves to the growth of the sport through the deployment of cutting-edge tournament software.

Our mission is to elevate the game for players and fans alike while ensuring a seamless competitive experience.

International Ambitions

In our pursuit of excellence, we welcomed Andre Roberts as our Global Business Development Manager. With his vast experience and strategic prowess, Andre is poised to take Maxwell Sports into the public eye and foster collaboration with players, influencers, and organizations in the world of pickleball.
